

SEC Consult is the leading European consultancy for application security services and information security, with offices in Europe, Asia and North America. SEC Consult is a specialist for the development of security information management processes and certification processes (ISO 27001), cyber defense, DDoS testing, external and internal security audits, secure software development and sustainable improvement of security levels. For immediate placement we are looking for a

IT Security Consultant (f/m) for our office in Bangkok

Your tasks ...

- Conducting penetration tests
- Conducting code reviews
- Create measures for customers to eliminate security vulnerabilities
- Performing tests of architectural concepts and create design patterns
- Creation of security concepts

Your qualifications ...

- Good knowledge in application security
- Knowledge in software/web development and rich clients
- Good knowledge in Java EE
- Knowledge about ISO/IEC 27001 and BSI IT-Grundschutz
- Excellent english skills

We provide ...

- To work for a successful, international and innovative information security company
- Possibilities of knowledge enhancement in different areas of information security (e.g. incident response, forensic, mobile security, reverse engineering, ...)
- Amazing projects in well-known companies
- Exciting and broad area of work with experienced security experts
- A young and motivated team
- The possibility to boost your know-how
- Mobile phone, notebook and internal events

APPLY NOW

If you think you are the right person for the job, please do not hesitate to apply. Please send your e-mail resume with a recent photo to career@sec-consult.com. Your contact person Ms. Abhinyapat Sripo-Ngam | For further information please contact us under office phone number +66 2 041 1146 or mobile number +66 81 626 9446

Please note that only shortlisted candidates will be notified.

